

2022 SWIMMING CARNIVAL –
Thursday, 17th February: 7pm to 9pm

Dear Parents/Caregivers

The Surveyors Creek Public School Swimming Carnival will be held on Thursday, 17th February 2022. Attendance is not compulsory. (Only competitive swimmers, with the ability to swim at least 50m unassisted, need attend.)

The carnival is for Year 3-6 students however Year 2 students who turn 8 years-old this year, may also compete.

It will be parent's responsibility to transport children to and from the pool and pay for the entry to the pool on arrival.

COVID RESTRICTIONS

- We ask that only 1 parent-spectator per child attends the carnival as Ripples Penrith has a cap on the number of attendees on site due to Covid regulations.
- Parent-spectators must sign in and out using the venues QR code, and must show that they've signed in on entry.
- Parent-spectators must stay in the designated spectator area away from the pool and maintain a 1.5m social distance from other spectators at all times.
- Students are to wait with their parent in the spectator area until their first race is called to the marshalling area.
- Students entering multiple races return straight to the marshalling area after each race to await their next race.
- Students that have completed all races that they wish to enter should return to their parent and leave the venue.

Venue: Ripples Penrith (Penrith Pools), 119 Station Street, Penrith
